World Religion Day

Sunday January 20th, 2019

World
Religion Day
20 January 2019

Every year the 3rd Sunday in January is celebrated as World Religion Day.

The first world religion day was celebrated in 1947 and was started by the leader of the Baha'i faith.

The aim so the day is to increase understanding and tolerance of the many different religions around our world.

It helps us to recognise that the religions of the world have a great deal in common and aren't as different as we think sometimes.

What links all these quotes?

Do not hurt others in ways that you yourself would find hurtful.

- Buddhism

What is hateful to you, do not do to others. That is the whole law.

- Judaism

Do to others whatever you would have them do to you.

- Christianity

None of you is a believer until you love your neighbour how you love for yourself. - Islam

"I am a stranger to no one, and no one is a stranger to me. Indeed, I am a friend to all."

This is the golden rule!

The Golden Rule:

Treat others
the way you would like to be treated

How does this fit in with the British Values that we learn about?

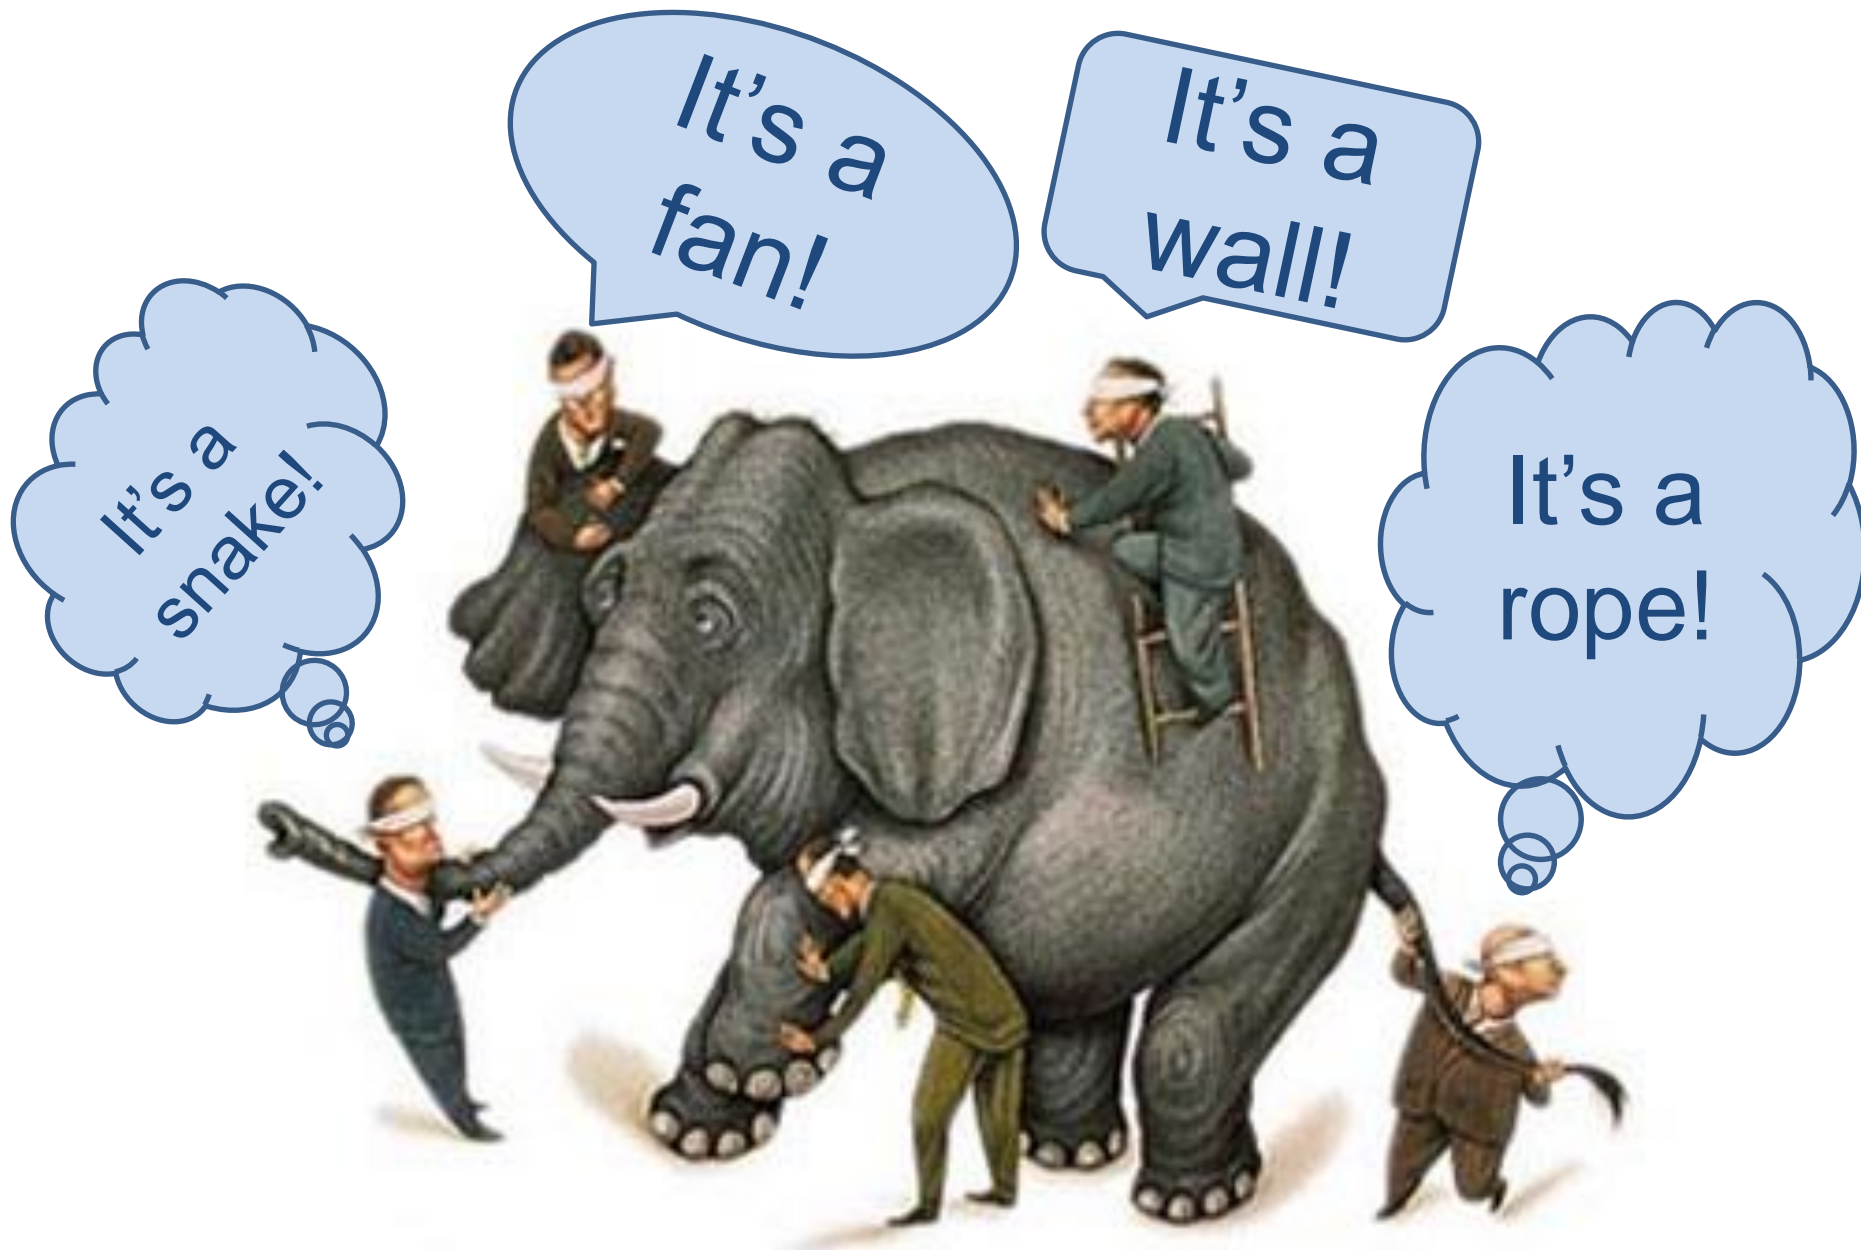

- democracy
- the rule of law
- individual liberty
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

WE ARE ONE!

JUST AS DIFFERENT INSTRUMENTS CREATE A SYMPHONY;
LET US MAKE THE COUNTRY BEAUTIFUL WITH COMMUNAL HARMONY.

What can you do to change your community?

Have a good week and coexist!
